Founding Director

Lee Majewski, MA, DYEd, C-IAYT is an author and founding director of Yoga for Health Institute (www.yogaforhealth.institute), a non-profit organization located in Toronto, Canada. She is also a visiting Senior Yoga Therapist at Kaivalyadhama Yoga Institute in India. Her own journey through cancer brought home the value of ancient Yogic methods and resulted in creating a unique healing, residential and online, retreat Beyond Cancer. As a result of program effectiveness and being the first of its kind, Beyond Cancer has received an influx of international recognition. Apart from India, the Beyond Cancer retreat is offered in Australia, North America and Europe, and currently, due to pandemic, online.

Lee is recognized internationally as an expert yoga therapist in cancer care and psychosomatic chronic diseases. Apart from conducting the workshops and retreats personally and online, she travels internationally sharing her expertise and running Beyond Cancer retreats. Lee is passionate advocate for Yoga therapy place in healthcare and in the community worldwide. Her expertise in Yoga therapy is captured in "Yoga Therapy as a Whole Person Approach to Health", and available on Amazon.

Lee lives and has private yoga therapy practice in Toronto, Canada, serving clients internationally via online platform. She can be contacted via email – info@yogaforhealth.institute.
